

Questions on biblical marriages such as polygamy

Question – YHWH only chose one wife so cannot have two can he?

Answer: Let us examine Ezekiel two:

Abrahamic-faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures

Ezekiel 23:2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

YHWH has two wives from the beginning, since YHWH is the first Patriarch and revealer of Patriarchal marriage and the one who appointed them from everlasting because the Torah was revealed to mankind in Sinai but always existed in heaven for as long as our Father did.

G-d did not say that I am taking my second wife after the first wife is divorced the act of serial monogamy but he had two wives at the same time. G-d also has seven feminine spirits that gives an allegorical picture of seven concubines who were all working to reveal the only Son of our Abba in heaven though the main principle allegorical wife of G-d meaning the Holy Spirit who is the feminine Spirit also called the mother of Yahushua in the very earliest writings of the Nazarenes that have been hidden by the Roman Christian Church and some are believed to be lost that is if you believe in church lies.

Objection – The Holy Spirit is a masculine (HE) so where do you get the idea that G-d has male and female attributes and commands us to obey Torah which Christians believe is not longer for them but is for the Jews.

Answer:

Abrahamic-faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures

John 16:13 And when She, the Ruach (Set-Apart-Spirit) of Truth, is come, She¹ will guide ye into all Truth for she will not speak of her own initiative; but whatever She shall hear, that shall She speak: and She will show you things to come..

Terms used:

She - The Holy Spirit is feminine and this may come as a shock to many but this is what the early Nazarene followers of Yahushua also believed. This is what Origen had to say about a text known as the book of Hebrews written in the Semitic tongue on the Holy Spirit. Origen (185-232 CE) said: 'If any one should lend credence to the Gospel according to the Hebrews, where the Saviour Himself says, 'My Mother, the Holy Spirit took me just now by one of my hairs and carried me off to the great mount Tabor,' (Origen's Commentary on John). So Yahushua called the Ruach His mother. It is important to note that in Hebrew all words carry gender whether masculine or feminine so when the translators translated these texts to Greek they changed the gender from feminine 'She' to the masculine 'HE.' When the text was translated into the English language, which has either a 'he,' 'she' or 'it' gender, this further compounds the problem because you cannot call a Hebrew word an 'it' as they have done in some places in the text. The text was naturally carried over from the Greek to the English with the incorrect gender.

Guide ye into all Truth - Torah truth is like a mother because she is the motherly side of YHWH. We do not know or cannot give her an earthly form, all we know is YHWH is a plurality of Father, Son and the Ruach, which shows us the picture of a family.

Shall here - The Holy Spirit emanated out of Abbah YHWH so will speak whatsoever the Father instructs her which is His Torah that the Son spoke about numerous times.

Objection: The restoration work of Messiah is to have ONE Bride (no polygamy) and to rescue her from adultery, divorce and widowhood. Israel could never be married to Messiah as an adulteress or as a divorcee or as a widow as Torah says the High Priest must be married only to a "virgin daughter of Israel ." Hence the need to be "born again". Israel must become a virgin Bride. This is accomplished in two ways:

- (1) Spiritually by BELIEF which causes renewal of the mind (repentance unto obedience) – which is a NEW spirit.
- (2) Physically at the return of Messiah – by the resurrection of the flesh – this equals a NEW body.

Answer: The Messiah came to redeem the one wife that was divorced by YHWH out of the two wives. Scriptures does not command anywhere that the High Priest is limited to only one wife. Many people read that into the text because it is not stated. There is nothing that says he cannot be married to two wives as long as both are virgin. The requirement is that they must not have slept with any man and must be from within Israel and strictly speaking virgins. The two wives are the House of Judah and the House of Israel.

Leviticus 21:13 (KJV) And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

The High Priest is limited to marrying a virgin only but there is no number limitation. Most of Israel's High Priest's were monogamous but that was by choice and not commandment.

If we strictly apply the criteria to the son of limiting him to one wife then what are you? You the reader are an allegorical one wife and I the writer allegorical am also one wife that makes two and there are millions of others. So how many wives? Now don't tell me $1 + 1 + 1 = 1$. That would be the wrong way of counting because many in churches count this way.

If the High Priest being also the Messiah and KING of Israel cannot have more than one wife then that by your own definition rules him out as a King and Messiah because by being the anointed one nothing anywhere says he is not allegorically married to more than one wife in fact He is. Welcome to your man made Messiah. Most of Israel's kings were polygamous, King David and King Solomon come to mind but I can name you several others who had more than one wife. Israelites pattern was of patriarchal marriage and not the Satanic monogamy practiced in the West.

Is the Messiah polygamous in Allegory?

Matthew 25:1 (AFNHSS) Then shall the kingdom of shamayim (heaven) be likened to ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

So what is the Messiah, the High Priest doing with Ten virgins, I thought He must be restricted to one? That also would mean that He rejects the law of His Father who allowed Polygyny in the Torah after the pattern of heaven which would mean that the Caucasian 'Jesus' is a fraud according to Christianity and not to be trusted because He allegorically is polygamous but most Christians by blindly following pagan traditions make him out to be a false Messiah by the way he is portrayed. The Real Yahushua by the way was black.

Matthew 25:10 (AFNHSS) And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage and the door was shut.

The Marriage was consummated with the five brides (plural patriarchal marriage), while the other five foolish ones were left out. If we loosely apply the symbols to the Church then half of them are unwilling to obey Torah and unsaved already.

Question: If YHWH'S original intention was polygamy then why did he create ONE Adam and ONE woman for him?

All G-d did was to create one man and one woman to show how a sexual union takes place in the garden. So when two are made one flesh it means sexual union between one man and one woman at one time. That also rules out a man having sexual intercourse with two wives at the same time because it is at one time only. So a man can be Akhad with more than one wife just like G-d is but individually. So a man can be Akhad with wife number one. A man can be Akhad with wife number two. G-d is Akhad with the Ruach Ha Kadosh. G-d is Akhad with his Bride the House of Israel (wife number 2) and G-d is also Akhad with Judah (Wife number 1).

Was G-d Akhad with the two allegorical brides or not? If He wasn't then let's talk and if he was then this argument cannot stand about Adam and Eve being one. They have to be one. This also has nothing to do with perfect conditions versus imperfect being outside the Garden. Adam was first married to another woman who left him but was not divorced and then Eve was created. If we believe in this then what does that make Adam marrying Eve while simultaneously marrying to another run away wife?

Was the Messiah Akhad with the allegorical ten brides of which 5 were faithful and 5 were not in Matthew 25?

Unfortunately such questions only show me people try to put G-d in a tin box and then pretending that G-d is unlimited. You limit G-d and then pretend you serve him.

These ideas of prohibiting what G-d has allowed long before the Garden the model He reveals in heaven also as I illustrated above that the Father as the Elder, the principle picture of the wife is the Holy Spirit and the seven Spirits the concubine picture in heaven. These problems are usually with Christian women and Christian men who claim to be Torah following but know nothing about Torah or the G-d they serve.

Unfortunately the women of the west have brought chaos in the Western lands by their feminist pagan ideas. Just today in the BBC News three women were challenging Ireland's laws on abortion as wrong. So they wanted to murder their children and they went to England to murder them calling it a personal choice. Abortion is murder whichever way we twist the logic.

http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/talking_point/8404230.stm

Ireland abortion:

Three women are challenging Ireland's abortion laws. They say that their human rights have been abused because of the country's position on abortion.

The women argue that their health and well-being were harmed because they had to travel to Britain to terminate pregnancies.

The Irish government has engaged two leading lawyers to argue its case that the country has a sovereign right to protect the life of the unborn.

So when you follow the world's way of serial monogamy then don't cry when people like Tiger wood's sleeps around with eight women apart from his wife. This is the world's way of hide and seek, while G-d's way is black and white. If someone wanted two wives then they go and get them and support them. No scandal and no embarrassment in the heavenly court for the righteous man or women.

Did we hear any scandals of the South African president who has several wives? He is a committed husband not some flimsy polygamist who has been married to one of his wives for over fifty years while most of the monogamists out there hardly last a few years.

His youngest wife Nompumelelo Ntuli would put objecting Western Christian women who oppose G-d's laws to shame, while everyone was seeking her attention in her beautiful attire in April 2009 and she was so happy with her husband that the only words that she uttered out of her mouth were "Jesus is Lord."

In the West the errant wives run around maligning their husband's. Even the monogamous variety is busybodies to usurp the authority over their homes and want to rule the husband. They put down their husband's and steal the G-d given authority from the head of the household and they call that freedom.

These women who reject the law of our Father in heaven will not be reaping His blessings but curses instead.

For such women I have news for you. Wait till YHWH sets the judgment against you on Yom Ha Din (The Day of Judgment) then you will know that He indeed has spoken but you did not have the ears to hear and the Holy Spirit had left you but you were too busy in your lives to notice. While you were busy building your false little empires in this world, He had ousted most women like you from the Kingdom and you have no kingdom. Has anyone the guts to tell you this except me, I doubt it because only His called out ones have the will and courage to speak hard truths which makes us unpopular. I would rather be unpopular with the world but remain in my Father's will.

Jacob Zuma was right when he attended a G20 meeting and there was only one seat for one of his wives and talking to a reporter said that the leaders of the world pretend monogamy but have secret mistresses while he was proud to be a polygamist and loved all his wives and children openly. Well that is the relationship that G-d blesses as well and not the hide and seek one where most of the stars of this world who have no eternal future pretend to be monogamous models of the west but are nothing but hypocrites with dozen of mistresses that will appear sooner or later which allow the tabloids to cash in on these stories.

The reality is that polygamy is normal in many cultures including the African culture and it does not matter if it was a Chinese or Japanese that brought up, Tiger Wood's because clearly his nature has not changed like any other man on the planet. How many other people especially good Pastor's have been demonized by the established dogmatic wayward Church who happened to have a second woman in their lives who was single and they were demonized with adultery when it is not adultery at all. The real definition of Adultery is to have relations with another man's wife and not another single woman who chooses to attach herself to the Pastor or any other man. She will only ever class as either biblical concubine or a lesser wife or if she marries the man then a second wife and no sin committed whatsoever.

Abraham did it, King David did it and even King Solomon did it and no it was not the Kings alone in Israel even many ordinary Israelites had concubines and many others continue to do so irrelevant of what many think or care. The Law of G-d will never change for any man and it is not debatable. Polygamy will always win over monogamy with many benefits.

Countless people in Churches will continue to be hounded and put down thanks to the Roman/Greek model of serial monogamy at work.

Shocking though it may be to some of you but this is how liberal Torah is but you want the world's system to scandalize people and put them down so most of you continue in your own foolishness because the real Israelite Torah believers want no part of this worldly thinking or scandals and practically we only care of what G-d thinks and not what society dictates. As long as we uphold the Ten Commandments and His laws we are in good standing with G-d rest assured.

Those of you whether you call yourself Christian or whatever who scandalize other believers who may have taken part in plural marriages of any form will be judged and thrown out of the kingdom on the Day of Judgment!!! Don't say I did not warn you so unless you go and apologize to those you have slandered and maligned, You will not inherit the kingdom, never. You want proof text then here it is:

Abrahamic-faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures

Psalm 15:

1 אָיִן, who shall abide in your tabernacle? Who shall dwell in your Set-

Apart Mountain?

Who will dwell or reside in G-d's holy Temple in Jerusalem this is about the 3rd Temple and the future millennial reign.

2 He that walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks the truth in his heart.

The only way to walk uprightly is to obey and guard the Torah commandments and to avoid sin. Have you obeyed the Torah and told the truth or do you call the Torah only for the Yahudim and not for me as most Christians do?

3 He that does not slander with his tongue, nor does evil to his neighbour, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbour.

He that does not slander with his or her tongue- Stop check. So if you have gone around the houses slandering those who were trying to live with their two wives in a Torah fashion or for other reasons, You are going to be thrown out of the kingdom! Go and read Psalm 15 again. If you slandered a good husband in plural marriage with the woman approval and you went around making scandals you are already evicted from the kingdom, your ministry is worthless you are only deceiving yourself and your time is running out, unless you repent, you will stay out. You may have slandered a brother or sister for other reasons such as jealousy the result is the same even for a run away jealous wife who hated her husband for asking to have a plural lifestyle.

It maybe that the person you slandered did not have two wives but you slandered him or her anyway, be prepared to be ousted, the Messiah's blood will not save you on the Day of wrath nor on the Day of Judgment. You will never be allowed to stand in the assembly of the righteous people such as Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, King David and King Solomon.

For those of you who may not know that it was King David who wrote this Psalm by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and He is still going to be the polygamous king upon His throne in Israel when he returns because with Him G-d will raise his plural wives also. He will sit as co-regent King in the millennium (Jer 30:9).

Now your only recourse before you die is to go to that person you slandered for plural marriage and apologise and ask forgiveness, make restitution with him/her first then from Yahushua after the person forgives you then you will surely be allowed to dwell in His house or its bye, bye. It does not matter if you are President of the US or Chancellor of the exchequer, you slander a Torah believer on polygamy or any other issue then you are already seen as expelled from the kingdom. Do not say on the Day of Judgment that no one warned you. If you have read this far then you have been warned and the very bible that you have in your home will be used against you on that Day as proof against you. It does not matter if that Bible is the KJV, NIV, RSV because it cannot hide our forefathers' lifestyles, which has Patriarchal marriages on every page. If you just like going around and being a talebearer and slanderer then the result is the same.

Objection: As I understand it polygamy came directly out of the wicked lineage of Cain. The polygamy of the Fathers of the faith was tolerated by G-d as were many other things not His original intention?

Answer: Read my post above you are on the wrong foot. G-d does not have two laws one for polygamists and one for non-polygamists.

G-d has two brides not that He had them and now they no longer exist. G-d with the Holy Spirit and the Seven other Spirits of G-d are one big family of a picture of a husband, a wife and seven concubines in the very heavens where the light of G-d dwells and a Son dwells namely the Messiah. It is a happy patriarchal family order, it always was and will be whether you are in His kingdom or not.

There is nothing in scripture that writes the way most of you out there think. I would like to see where it has been stated by G-d that he tolerated polygamy only after sin? What nonsense is this? Only foolish hearts have these ideas.

Now let me show you that He delighted in our forefathers, of who many were polygamous.

Deut 10:15 (KJV) Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

Clearly contrary to foolishness G-d delighted in our fathers even though they were polygamous households being fully endorsed by G-d. The model of polygamy is one of heaven in a picture format. This is not to say that G-d is a man and has several wives but He demonstrates it like that in our human way of understanding in His Holy Scriptures.

Who were our fathers?

- Abraham – Called G-d's friend and was polygamous with four wives.
- Isaac – Abraham's son who accepted polygamy for his son Jacob to be married to four wives or did you think Jacob never asked his dad's permission to marry his second wife Rachel instead of Leah? Isaac had two wives in the north and south divide too.
- Jacob – He was polygamous married to four wives and called Righteous.

Objection: I would like to point out that David was actually very undeniably in contravention of the Torah command for Kings who were specifically told "Do

NOT multiply wives to themselves.” (Deut 17:17) The reason why I understand YHWH did not hold David accountable for this particular transgression is because David had done it in ignorance as the Torah had not been regularly taught or available to him. Only later on in David’s life did he really become properly mindful of the Torah. He loved YHWH but he did sin in ignorance by doing what the world around him was doing, before He fully repented and began to love and seek Torah (Ps 119)?

Answer: Once again you are very very wrong. King David knew more Torah than all the kings of Israel put together. He studied it for 28 years of his life. His father was a prominent judge on the Beit Din (House of Judgment) of Israel. He was one of the four leading judges of the land of Israel. First get your facts right then make assumptions.

2 Samuel 12:8 (KJV) And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had things.

So who was giving King David many wives? The Father in heaven or King David’s own heart?

Now coming back to the passage of Deut 17 from where you construct such wrong doctrines..

Abrahamic-faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures

Deut 17:17 Neither shall he greatly increase many wives for himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he increase a great amount of silver and gold for himself.²

Many wives: This is the same principle as in verse 16. The king can have many wives because Israel was a polygamous society and that is the only way they could multiply and increase the seed in the earth. The idea here is that you must not increase wives to forget YHWH. You could have 5 wives or 15 wives and that would not be a problem as long as you could provide for their needs and be able to serve YHWH. This does not break the concept of Yesod Ha Briah of procreating seed.

The case of King Solomon having one thousand wives shows us the problem was not the 1000 wives contrary to most scholar’s opinions or biases but the fact that they some of these turned his heart away from YHWH because many were heathen. So even If you being a believer marry a non-believer, and she turns your heart away from Elohim as can happen then that one wife is too much.

We have a perfect example in scripture of this one wife, who caused folly in Israel with King Ahab and his wife Jezebel. She did more damage in Israel bringing in Baalism than any other woman. Proving that one wrong wife was too much. Whereas if King Ahab had married twenty righteous women there would have been no problem.

In Israel the argument was not whether polygamy was allowed or not but it is a reality we live and our forefathers lived. Even in the coming Messianic kingdom there will be polygamy. See Isaiah 4:1, which tells us that the ratio will be seven women to one man.

Objection: Moses was not polygamous. As for Moses – well, as far as I know the Scriptures never state that he had two wives at one time. We are only told that he married twice. Zipporah may have died before he married the Ethiopian. At any rate there is no sufficient Biblical verse to categorically state Moses was a polygamist. It simply can't be proved either way.

Answer: Perhaps you can say that for yourself that it cannot be proved but It's rather sad that time and time again I have to show misguided people that Moses indeed had not just two but three wives. In fact he lived his life happily with Zipporah and his Cushite wife before he died and no there were not the same woman because he actually married the Cushite before he left Egypt and she rejoined him after the Exodus. The Cushite woman was a princess his half sister and Zipporah was his cousin. The North/South pattern also was followed by Moses.

One more thing the Cushite woman was a descendant of Ham while Zipporah was a Midian and descendant of Shem, these are two completely different genealogies. So the scholarly types out there who think they know better you don't.

Yashar 72:37 And all the people and nobles swore unto him to give him for a wife Adoniah the queen, the Cushite, wife of Kikianus, and they made Moses king over them on that day.

Yashar 72:31-32 And they placed the royal crown upon his head, and they gave him for a wife Adoniah the Cushite queen, wife of Kikianus. 32 And Moses feared YHWH Elohim of his fathers, so that he came not to her, nor did he turn his eyes to her.

Yashar 76:4-6 And Adoniah the queen said before the king and the princes, What is this thing which you, the children of Cush, have done for this long time? (5) Surely you know that for forty years that this man has reigned over Cush he has not approached me, nor has he served the G-ds of the children of Cush. (6) Now therefore hear, O ye children of Cush, and let this man no more reign over you as he is not of our flesh.

Moses never consummated the marriage with this Cushite widow queen but he had been already married earlier to another Cushite princess. Zipporah was his second wife.

Moses Torah well enough not to consummate this marriage because it was most likely given by Cushite customs and not Torah. We can see that this was confirmed later when Adoniah rebelled against Moses for him not following her and her false idols of worship.

Tziporrah was wife number three but in reality number two when we discount the Adoniah marriage but albeit became his primary wife until after which time his first wife the Cushite princess from Egypt joined him.

Now Josephus also records the marriage of Moses to an Ethiopian woman. Moses was still in Egypt so this was the first marriage of Moses adding to the equation meaning he could have had three wives in total at different times.

He did not reconcile the marriage with Adoniah, he married this princess Tharbis before he left Egypt so she is wife number one and then later married Tziporrah meaning it could be that when he fled from Egypt his wife would have gone back to Cush and later caught up with him.

We do not hear anything about Tharbis upon Moses departure from Egypt so it would be second guessing what happened but my view is she was the one mentioned in Numbers 12.

Josephus writes:

Tharbis was the daughter of the king of the Ethiopians: she happened to see Moses as he led the army near the walls, and fought with great courage; and admiring the subtlety of his undertakings, and believing him to be the author of the Egyptians' success, . . . she fell deeply in love with him; and upon the prevalence of that passion, sent to him the most faithful of all her servants to discourse with him about their marriage. He thereupon accepted the offer, on condition she would procure the delivering up of the city; and gave her the assurance of an oath to take her to his wife; and that when he had once taken possession of the city, he would not break his oath to her. No sooner was the agreement made, but it took effect immediately; and when Moses had cut off the Ethiopians, he gave thanks to G-d, and consummated his marriage, and led the Egyptians back to their own land. (2:252-253)

I suggest Moses had already married Tharbis and since Tziporrah's death is not recorded it does not matter. Moses followed the custom of his forefathers of a wife in the North and one in the south.

Exo 18:2 (NKJV) Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

Both women lived happily ever after accepting each other and had some interesting stories to tell of Moses prior to the run off from Egypt and the run in with Tziporah's family, which is another lengthy episode best held dear in my memory.

Moses was a black man and so were the majority of Israelites we have ample evidence to know that Moses knew Torah well before it was officially codified at Mount Sinai since he refused to consummate the marriage with the widow queen Adoniah. Moses was not exactly the Caucasian Charlton Heston but a man of Negro descent. The Negro race came out of Shem.

Question: Abraham simply did what the people around him did until YHWH actually called him. The Torah does not tell men to marry more than one woman. It only tells them the righteous way to treat those poor women if they have already married them!

Answer: I did not realize until now that biblical literacy is a big issue in Christendom. Christians unfortunately due to lack of good teachers have little to no understanding of many key biblical principles.

The above questioner though sincere knows knowing at all about Torah and its laws.

If Torah did not say it then how do we have our marriage customs?

We did not have to go to Christianity but Christianity had to come to my forefathers to learn and then corrupted the faith of Judaism and produced a new religion from Rabbi Paulos's letters.

Exodus 21:10 "If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights.

As can be seen as long as you provide for your wife number one and the other wife that you take on no sin has been committed. However the author advises caution to keep both wives in separate homes and on separate allowances so each can run her own household without coming into conflict with the other. The husband has to manage these affairs and the children concerned and the inheritance first goes to the first wife and with the first son as Torah states.

The levirate law is mentioned in Deuteronomy 25:5.

"If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be married to a stranger outside the family; her husband's brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

This was commanded polygamy both in the Tanach (Old Testament) and Renewed Covenant (NT) Matt 22:24-30.

Question: Is it lust to have more than one wife?

Answer: Who said lust is sin? Ah your friend Paul right? Then please I lust after food that must mean I am a sinner right? Wrong! We can and do lust after food and it is not a sin. We can and do lust for our wife or wives and it is not sin.

The only lust that scripture prohibits is lusting after another man's wife not lusting after your own (Matt 5:28)!!! The actual translation of the Greek word for lust in Matthew 5:28 is Strong's G1937 ep-ee-thoo-meh'-o, which means to long for, to covet, to desire, and to feign. The context of the word is to "desire". So if I desire food one may put it as 'lust' but that is the present English meaning however there is no sin in desiring food as is not desiring a second wife.

When the gentile translators mistranslate the bible then this becomes lust but is the word "desire."

Mathew 13:17 (KJV) For verily I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired [ep-ee-thoo-meh'-o] to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

If we mistranslate this as have other gentile translators then this would become 'many prophets and righteous men have "lusted" to see those things...

So to use the language of the KJV these prophets lusted after the kingdom so were they sinners? No. Lusting for the right thing is not a sin. Let me show you an example.

Luke 15:16 (KJV) And he would fain [ep-ee-thoo-meh'-o] have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

G-d showed the prodigal son was starving and he was desiring or even lusting after food. Was he wrong to do that? No, in starvation he had all the right to desire after food or even lust after it as such. All the word "lust" really in context means is to desire something. So next time you desire to be with your wife or desire to be in a particular restaurant lusting after these things you will know that I educated you that it is not wrong and definitely not sinful.

Don't you desire for your Sunday roast before it has been made? Well maybe not, maybe you eat Monday roast. (Smile). Good for you.

Objections: Some people write to me coming out with blanket statements in opposition such as that "The Father is not teaching them this" or that "this is of the devil" or worst still "this will destroy your testimony" however not one scripture is cited against what Torah states about Biblical Patriarchal marriages. Blanket statements are quite happily accepted of Abraham being the father of our faith but it's ignored that he was a Patriarch in a Patriarchal marriage system. The ironical stance of many Christians and Torah observant Messianics is comical who claim to be following the faith of Abraham but reject his lifestyle which was Patriarchal. Hellooooooooooooo anyone listening?

Objection: The Father is not teaching them this.

Answer: First of all the Father can only teach you what you are mature enough to handle so He will never overload you with the whole truth since you might stumble at the tiniest bit of truth as its clear you are stumbling with polygamy a major truth of our forefathers. If you are still feeding on milk then how can you handle meat? Now ask yourself this if you are a Torah plus believer of Yahushua, how much did it take for you to give up your bacon? How much stumbling block was it that when people with knowledge from the Scriptures came and said don't eat that pork and you probably retorted all things are clean. It could have been crabs, lobster, shrimps or some other food like French horses. So to say the Father is not teaching you this does not make a Torah truth an untruth but shows that you may need to mature up more. Can your ego accept this?

The other thing could be that you are considerably in older years of your life and you never intend to get married or do not see the need to then one must ask why do you care whether it is one marriage, two or none? The only thing the Father expects from you is an Amen to His commandments just like Abraham was vindicated for being faithful with many wives and hard Torah truths and no he did not lie when he said Sarah is his sister which is something a brother told me but I had to show him that this is simple churchianity's uneducation and that the Torah speaks of him in a very favorable position and maybe he should really consult Torah next time he speaks and then I showed him what Yahuweh says about him and how Abraham through his lineage was Sarah's relative and she was his half sister.

The Testimony of YHWH for Abraham was this after his life from the Mouth of Yahuweh.

Genesis 26:5 because Abraham obeyed My voice and guarded My Charge: My commands, My laws, and My Torot.

Objection: This is of the devil and you are doing the devil's work.

Answer: I am quite amused at this one. The Devil's model is monogamy which you have definitely accepted. So who is following the Devil's way?

The Devil encourages serial monogamy which is pagan through and through and accepted by most Christians. So tell me where is the Devil working? How about in your churches?

Objection: This will destroy your testimony!

Answer: ONLY YHWH decides my testimony and not you. I have known about this truth since the day I was regenerated by Yahushua and it never destroyed my testimony because it is not mine? My testimony for YAHUSHUA. It was He who worked in My life so anytime my testimony takes on any more meaning than that in that I should make my self bigger or I should be exalt myself, may it never be because I live to exalt the Master's most holy name YHWH.

The whole of Scripture alongside being called Tanach, Navim, Ketuvim is also called Eduth meaning testimony or witness. What is this whole of Scripture Testimony of? The Master Yahushua of course. So my testimony or witness MUST be of Him so that He is glorified and it is for Him and never for me. Any Torah truth will always shine through no matter how difficult it is for us. My testimony will always remain faithful to Him.

One famous Rabbi said "Truth is buried in the grave" and rightly so because lies are rampant in the world and accepted as truth, one such is serial monogamy only lifestyle. Similarly I was also buried in the grave when I was like many Muslims dead in my sins and sure to go to eternal death to the lake of fire but Yahushua changed my life with the Truth and so raised me from the grave where Truth is still buried for many in the world.

How is that possible you may ask? Well think about it, if I never knew truth and had died then I would find out Truth after death in the grave. So the truth as the Rabbi rightly stated is 'buried in the grave' is a very factual statement.

The criteria for accepting Truth should never be whether I like it or not or does my spouse like it or not but simply is it from the Father and anything that is written in Scriptures I attest to being from the Father since Yahushua confirmed that it was not His words but the Father's He spoke (John 14:24).

I know the hypocrisy of many in the Churches and also of Torah followers that are quite happy to sing Psalm 23 and feel all good and fuzzy about it but they forget that Melek Dawud (King David), Moses and King Solomon few of the people who penned those Psalms were all righteous polygamists. Don't speak from the two sides of your mouth.

How many of you are willing to stand at the front lines to be the first one in line to be killed for teaching Yahushua's Torah truths? Hands up all who do. Don't try to show me your bravado behind your keyboards. I walk the walk and talk the talk and I know what I am and that will never change.

Some of you have never left the lands you were born in and don't even have a passport. I know many ex-Muslims are selected for the zeal. However difficult martyrdom might be but this is one truth many people would reject if it was the tenet of the Christian faith but it is a requirement for some of us (Psalm 116:15 Precious in the sight of YHWH is the death of his saints) to be hacked to death but not for all so since we are not afraid to die then why should we be afraid to practice other truths such as Poly-marriages. Our practicing of truth is not determined by whether your man made denominations believe it or not or others follow it or not. We do not care!!!!

Admitted you may be macho behind your computer keyboards but how many of you are willing to wear the shoes we wear and travel to the radical regions of the world to reach those unreached with the truth of the Messiah where they shoot first and ask questions later. Most of you would not last five minutes so get off your bandwagon. We walk these dangerous paths all the time.

Are you willing to make that kind of stand? If you are not then why write vitriolic hatred against us who make a stand for ALL of Yahuweh's truth? You only bring you respect down in my and other's sight who know TRUTH and you destroy your testimony in Yahuweh rest assured to utter lashon hara (evil speech) against His chosen servants is not only sin but will eject many from the kingdom to come as I have shown you earlier.

I and others like me stand as a living testimony to YHWH's laws penned 3500 years ago for all nations especially to the 1.6 billion Muslims who still need salvation. Hallelu'Yah.

At the end of the day the ONLY testimony I need and want is one where the Master Yahushua says "Well done my good and faithful Servant."

Objection: How can there be plural marriages in the Millennial Kingdom when Yahshua clearly stated that "In the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are as the angels in heaven." (Matt 22:30).

Answer: Let us take a look at Matthew 22:30 once again.

Abrahamic-faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures

Matthew 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels in shamayim (heaven).³

³ Many manuscripts miss or omit 'of Elohim.'

Yahushua was clear that while people are being raised marriage will not be an issue as the resurrection will be like the twinkling of an eye. It will be very fast happening in a split second at that time. But people in the kingdom will marry and be given in marriages. The questioner did not ask will they have wives in the kingdom but they asked what would happen IN the resurrection. Yahushua put them on the right path, that you will be like angels because we will fly like them at the time of our resurrection, but once we are raised and established in Israel we will have wives and children. Its like asking what will happen when you stand behind a red light. Well when the light goes green you go but then what happens after you go? That is similarly to the Kingdom there are marriages, houses, and children.

So if there are no marriages then how come we are eating and drinking and having children? Let me show you

Isa 65:20 (KJV) There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

How can a child die if he is not born and we are all like angels? Children will be born.

Isa 65:23 (KJV) They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

Children will be born of righteous believers.

Isa 4:1 (KJV) And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

Many righteous believers will have seven wives because of the great war will leave much devastation and the need to take in more than one wife will be much more prevalent according to the law of the Torah so no new law needs to be established hence why there will be children and rejoicing in the coming one thousand years reign.

Yes Isaiah chapter 3 speaks of the great war that Israel will be fighting.

Now you have to ask yourself if you are a prejudiced man or woman who hates polygamy what should you do? I would suggest repent for your sins will weigh you down.

The only way then for this to resolve is to pray for wisdom and direction. Just because a person has been abused by say male or female spouses this has no bearing on G-d's law. One bad man or two bad men cannot change G-d's holiness into lasciviousness.

These commands were written to protect women in the African culture where the price of a woman is less than water. Where she is treated like dirt and can be kicked out anytime from her house. Where she could even be thrown out for bad cooking. G-d is holy and just and wants to protect the ones he created lovingly.

In the African culture women have suffered many abuses and G-d wanted to protect the women but men being what they are have still managed to abuse them. This is man's fault not G-d's.

What if I don't like this law of G-d?

We are not asked to like or dislike the law of G-d but we are asked to say amen to it. If we don't accept it then we are in danger of rebellion and rebellion is the sin of witchcraft. Many women have already gone that way so please I adjure you to pray and seek help from Yahushua. If you do not like it then I am not asking you that you have to accept polygamy in your life but I am asking you not to rebel against G-d and His holy law because rebellion will lead G-d to remove you from His will and it is a bad thing to be out of the will of G-d.

One woman said to me that she would rather not be in the kingdom where G-d allows seven wives to one man. Its clear to me that such a person is hurt from the past but is judging G-d for something they have yet no understanding of. It's a sad thing to say such a thing because that person does not have any idea of the tortures of hell/she'ol and how you neve want to be in the portions of hell. Please see my article here.

Note: Why did G-d call the Messiah a lion and not a wolf? A lion is a polygamous creature while a wolf is highly monogamous one. In fact the wolf is always identified with craftiness and Satan in scripture. Do you see where the model of the monogamy only crowd ends up? In the world of Satan. In G-d's sphere polygamy is marriage whether we are happy about it or sad. King Solomon married many wives and to some of you especially ladies he was lusting, well even if he was, lust towards the one you espouse to marry or are married to is very scriptural. As I showed you earlier even through the Greek's usage that to "desire" your wife or one you are going to marry is very normal.

Question: Are you saying these things because you are practicing polygamy and you want everyone else to be like you?

Answer: I did not have to put this question here but I wanted to make something absolutely clear. I accept all of G-d's laws no matter how hard they look to most of you and polygamy is a valid form of marriage. Whether I practice or not is a personal matter and of no consequence to anyone.

Shalom Shalom

Would you like to know the identity of Yahushua's family? Did He have brothers and sisters, did He get married, are not Rabbis meant to marry, was Mary Magdalene His wife? All these answered in the book. Are you fed-up of hearing objections such as if you do not know who Matthew, Mark, Luke and John were then how can you claim to have the truth?

Do you feel frustrated to go to your Pastor only to be told he does not know? What caused Rabbi Paulos to persecute perfectly normal Jewish men and women who simply practiced Judaism? Who was Nicodemus, what relationship did Yahushua have with Lazarus? Did Yahushua have relatives? For too long He has been portrayed as the wandering man with no belongings and no family and living wildly, picking up food from the trees, fields and women offering him handouts.

This picture is both misleading and deceptive. Do you want to know the powerful family of Yahushua, fill the gaps? Who were Mark, Luke, Matthew and even John? What connection has Joseph of Arimathaea with Yahushua and why would a rich man like him be willing to give his own expensive tomb for Yahushua's burial? It makes no sense. How many rich people give you their plot of land to bury your dead today? None.

Do rich men do such things, if so then why was the rich man in Matthew 19:21 unwilling to give away all his money? Did Yahushua carry the curse of Jeconiah (Jer 22:24-30)? The answer that Christendom gives is a copycat Judaism answer that the curse was lifted but it wasn't. Jewish and Christian answers on this are wrong. What about the genealogy of Luke and Matthew why the two fathers of Yahushua Heli or Jacob in Matthew 1:16 and Luke 3:23? Will the real father of Yahushua please stand up and he surely will in this book.

Who were the Hebrews, what is the term "West" in Hosea 11:10 referring to? Hosea 11:10 (KJV)...then the children shall tremble from the west.

If we believe popular opinions then they are all in Europe and America but the reality is very different. This book is a wake up call to the last generations.

This book will give you new insights and the rich history of Yahushua.
