

What would happen to those who live disobediently but profess the Messiah Yahushua (Jesus of Nazareth)?

8th Jan 2009

Modified 22nd December 2009

I have often heard people say well I profess Yahushua so I am saved and I don't have to obey the Torah. Usually the two reasons given are one that the Torah is done away or two, it is only for the Jewish people. Technically most Christians will say I believe in the inerrancy of the Bible but little do they realise that they are abrogating the entire law of God by saying the Torah is no longer for us since this contains the corpus of the law of our God.

I have news for you who believe the Torah is abrogated or only for the Jews. Here is a morning prayer that the Jewish people pray daily:

Lo Ya-cha-lif ha-EI Ve lo ya-mir da-to God will never exchange nor replace his law. Christians take note because it many of your ignorant Pastor's who want to abrogate His law.

Revelation 22:14 Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city.

Also there is no gate labelled Christianity, there is no gate in Rome or France, the only gates will be in Jerusalem: Christianity is only a valid way as long as you obey the Torah, you reject Torah therefore God rejects you. There is no way around this. The Messiah came to preach and lead back to the Torah he did not come to start a new religion.

Many people do not realise that by doing away with the Torah there is no longer any commandment LEFT to obey, there is no longer any Messiah to look forward to and there is certainly no New Covenant left and no longer any promises made to the Patriarchs to wait for their fulfillment.

Only the children of Satan reject the law of God.

Also without Torah you end up worshipping a lawless Messiah who sadly would only prove to be a false prophet the one that Deuteronomy 13:1-5 warns about. We know that many Christians in ignorance have already done just that. They have a problem with people correcting them because that sounds like judging and the false theology the church has taught them says don't judge, means don't tell me I am wrong else I will not like it or talk to you ever again. Living in love without any active obedience to the commandments of God is simply a waste of your life with meaningless doctrine derived by twisting and misunderstanding Rabbi Paulos's letters in the Renewed Covenant (New Testament). Christians cannot quote one passage from the four synoptic gospels that says the law of God is abrogated but pick and choose from Rabbi Paulos's letters to justify their errant doctrines and disobedience in general. On Yom Ha Din (The Day of Judgment), Rabbi Paulos won't be there to help you. Just because you misinterpret a Pharisee's letters is really you and your Pastor's fault for not understanding first century terms like "law", "the way", "the truth", "man", "under the law," etc, etc.

Fortunately where I come from not only do we make our business to know Jewish halacha (way of conduct) but we tell it to someone's face, a little blunt perhaps but well worth the discourse and discussion that ensues later.

This is how we Middle-Easterners behave. I know it is certainly not politically correct and even may seem rude at times but no discussion from the West is going to change how Middle-Easterners conduct their business and have been doing for eons of time and will continue to do so. Your faith is your lifestyle and it is ingrained in every fabric of your being, if it isn't then it is a dead faith at best not worth living, this is how we all middle-eastern people behave.

Scripture tells us to judge righteously (John 7:23) things of this world and we are to judge things amongst us, while we do not condemn people sending them into the lake of fire so to speak as that is for God to decide but scripture tells us that one day we will even judge angels (For some people that can also mean Pastor's or ministers are not immune from this judgment) (First Cor 6:3-5; 11:13, 31; 14:29).

The Tanach (Hebrew Bible from Genesis to Malachi) is termed the Old Testament by Christians and Messianites however nothing in the wording of any of God's Covenants calls it old. The word "old" in Hebrew is the term Balaw and Yashan. The term Balaw correctly means "worn out" or "dilapidated". Neither of the two Hebrew terms were ever used to remotely describing the Covenant made at Mount Sinai or any other covenant in the Torah. So to call it the OLD Covenant is a gross error in my view. Sadly this theology is rife in assemblies and churches giving fuel to the lie that God's words have become OLD obsolete and therefore by extension are now abrogated. The Tanach (Hebrew Bible) is attached to the Christian Bible to prove their Messiah is who He claims else it really has no value for them. Any Jewish Rabbi will smack them in the face and remind them correctly without the law of God you have nothing. No Messiah, No God, you are not even part of Israel. You have nada and nada means living like heathens. If you want to behave like gentiles then the Jewish people are right to call you gentiles, goy and goyim. Then do not complain when the Jewish people use these terms for you.

However, the truth is that none of God's Covenants are OLD and every word of the Lord is alive and wholesome for our living. The only thing we cannot do today is animal sacrifices, basically the priestly functions and that is because there is no Temple yet. Take note even those laws are not done away with but are merely paused until the 3rd Temple is rebuilt by the order of King Messiah after the ground will be cleansed and expanded. God's words are for sure ancient (Qedem) but are always ALIVE AND LIVING but are never OLD or IRRELEVANT and will always be relevant in any time-frame for any believer looking for solace and peace in the message of God.

The often quoted excuse by Christians is I don't need the Torah and that I am saved by grace. The truth is that grace has always existed from before time began because grace is in the name of our holy King YHWH. So if God lives forever than so does grace, if that was not the case then we would all be dead because our sin would cause God to kill us all and that is the plain truth. Grace is one of his name's main attributes though it will take a little detail to explain but another time I will perhaps do that too. Technically in ancient pictorial Hebrew YHWH means "Breath" so by extension to Breathe is for living beings to live and not be dead. This is grace because both pagans and believers are allowed to live even though the heathens spew hatred against the God of Israel but he allows them to continue to breathe which is true grace.

When Adam was given the animated life the Scriptures tell us:

Gen 2:7 (KJV) And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

As can be seen God “breathed into the first man the ‘breath of life.’ This is what God’s name stands for and not the popular version you read in your concordances such as ‘He is’ or ‘to be.’ Sorry once more you have it incorrectly applying modern Hebrew to the ancient Hebrew pictographic text with modern evolved meanings. The root word for YHWH is not Hayah. But YH (Yah). This is probably the only name so holy in scripture that has a two letter root instead of a standard three letter parent root. Dictionaries and Hebrew concordances are sadly full of such errors being propagated by many Christian scholars. The meaning of God’s name is right there in the first chapter of Genesis if anyone cares to look at it and examine it. I have shown you clearly in chapter two spelt out so to speak. For more on the name and the one given to Moses please read my article “Did he really say I am?”

So let’s analyse this statement. Grace is life, now if God had put His “breath” into the first man Adam and subsequently into every human being then what is that? THIS IS GRACE. God controls every breath we take, every second of it. Even if you are a hard core atheist He can command His angels to take your life at anytime and your atheism won’t come to save you and you will be dead taken to she’ol where the wicked dead are kept. It is by grace He allows you to live, while you may utter blasphemies against the Holy One of Israel, His grace gives you time to repent.

Daniel 5:23 "And you have lifted yourself up against the MASTER of heaven. They have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or know; and the Elohim who holds your breath in His hand and owns all your ways, you have not glorified.

The Curse of the Torah will be upon the people who speak blasphemies against the Holy One of Israel, the Master of the whole universe.

We have no right to live but only by His grace He gives us the “breath” of life. I thank Him for this while yet I was a sinner He had mercy upon me to allow me to come this far to know His Messiah and the Father through the Messiah and have an eternity to live with Him.

The attribute of His name is Grace and it is one of His main attributes!

Christendom says since I am saved and going to be in the kingdom then what difference does it make whether I keep the Torah or not. They say that if you want to obey the Torah of Moses then good for you because both you and me are going to be in the kingdom as both of us believe in the Messiah of Israel.

The following verse may be quoted to them to make the salient point that the Torah is not for us any longer.

Mat 11:11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

This verse is quoted without even understanding what it is trying to tell the reader and the listener.

Myth Buster

You have heard it said, “All people who believe in the Messiah will enter the kingdom...” So therefore if believing in the Messiah means acknowledging that he existed or lived then so did Satan. Is then Satan going to be in the kingdom also?

The following are some key points that the Churches haven't quite learnt to teach yet...

What I am about to write will for sure make many Christians upset and uncomfortable but the truth has to be told even if it be a little distasteful. I have yet to read any teacher critique this error so many live so I consider myself at least first to highlight issues that few would have considered but there may be others who are pondering but may not have quite picked the courage to say the necessary but brothers if you are teachers of the Most High then the time is now to speak because the hunters are here (Jer 16:16) before they start to take away the people.

The idea of this article is not to make people upset but to establish reality so that many will be enlightened to know and obey the Torah of Moses and have the chance to change their lifestyles. These are choices that we decide to make for good or bad. It makes no difference to Simon whether you believe in the Torah truth or not but it will make a difference to your own life and will have a major impact on your resurrection IF you are raised at the first resurrection and it is a big IF.

It was one sunny day 11 years ago that God called me while I was quietly minding my own business in a plush merchant bank in London and He separated me and told me certain hard facts. Tears ran down my eyes that the God of this universe was conversing with little me and now I have such a big task in front of me how am I going to face my Muslim family and tell them these things. Nobody would believe me and I will certainly become the laughing stock of the family that he is a mad-man.

This was worse than the credit crunch for me as I was crunched between two worlds of truth or lies mixed with truth. A man in an instance with two houses and two cars had no home and was looking for a room to rent. Sure many people laughed at me and said all sorts of things against me, they said he has gone mad, they said the missionaries have paid him off to buy him, look he has found a new religion but I bowed my head before the God of Israel and only sought to be obedient to Him even in my most crunched up state! I accepted my time had come to know and act and things can only get better after all I was on the floor and after being verbally kicked what else could happen. For me death was only an appointment with God waiting to happen to live with Him in eternity forever.

Later God summoned me to Israel and told me He chose me in the likeness of Moses and said to me that you are going to strike your staff into the ground and living waters will come out and heal many people. He said you will make salve from the ground and apply to people's eyes and they will see and know truth.

Friend's everything in life is a choice and so is our eternity. We can choose to stay in the dungeons of She'ol (hell fire) and then to be disposed in the lake of fire or we can choose to be in the kingdom of God and be ruling the world with the King Messiah. It's up to us to either walk with Him or walk away from Him. He does not force us in anyway but encourages us to choose wisely.

Most of us spend so much time looking for bargains, how to save money, products, how to travel cheaper, buy cheap homes or decorate our houses with inexpensive furniture or perhaps how to keep fit and stay healthy. This is not to say these are bad endeavours by themselves but how many of us spend time and hard graft looking at where we are going to spend eternity and what does it mean for each one of us and how to make it better for us and more fulfilling. Would you not want to spend time on this endeavour? Recently I read about one woman in England who had written everything about what to do before she dies which ranged from travelling the world to parachute jumping even what kind of house she would like to purchase but there was one thing missing. What would she do about her eternity? Clearly this woman had missed out on a major.

At least in my mind's eye this is the most important pursuit but the least looked at and considered by believers and is usually put on a back burner until we face the ultimate reality.

God is raising teachers to teach these things perhaps many have not paid attention so far but this may force some to rethink their positions to the eternal order. People who live disobediently face the following consequences;

- They will not have the same resurrection.
- Some will not get in at all Christian or not
- They will not have the same place in the Kingdom.
- They will not have the same position of authority.

We will look at each point individual.

They will not have the same resurrection

My perspective on this is going to present problems for the Christian believer who has never learnt to obey the Torah.

The books of Torah written by Moses and contained in every Christian Bible is the Law of God and ipso facto cannot be changed. And every word, precept upon precept line upon line has to be pondered and adhered to. Anyone rejecting these books to me has built their house on sand and is surely going to sink. Many Christian Churches lack understanding in this area vastly. They say we believe in the Bible but they do not know the difference between the real Sabbath on Saturday and the day of worship they have adopted on Sunday from the Catholics, which has nothing to do with the Sabbath in the Bible. Many do not know anything about the seven feasts of God or what does kosher eating means. If you honestly ask any ordinary Christian what day is the Sabbath and they will likely say Sunday without blinking an eyelid yet Sunday is not the Sabbath that God established. In the past it was at one time the worship of the sun hence Sun-day. It is an idolatrous day by its very definition and God commands the Sabbath as a holy gathering Lev 23:2.

When they say we believe in the Bible they really only mean the New Testament (The Renewed Covenant). Even then they reject many precepts in the Renewed Covenant some of which I may touch upon to explain a little because they are all out of the Law of God called the Torah. The biggest fault with most Christians is being selective.

One law mentioned is the feast where Rabbi Paulos commands believers to keep the feast without leaven talking about the feast of unleavened bread but very few Christians understand it and many continue to keep Easter but not the actual Passover though only a fraction of the Christians keep it with good understanding of it (1 Cor 5:7-8).

Deu 28:1 (KJV) And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

The Torah is our guide book for every concrete doctrine, in this are listed blessings and curses, if you obey the words of God then you have earthly blessings and if you do not then you receive the curses, this is in spite of whether you are saved or not hence why Rabbi Paulos stated what was already established by the Rabbis of the day.

Gal 3:10 (KJV) For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

Deu 27:26 (KJV) 'Cursed is he who does not establish the Words of this Torah.' And all the people shall say, 'Aměn!'

Are you going to be resurrected in the 1st resurrection or the second?

Deu 28:13 (KJV) And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

This commandment shows us that you would be the head not the tail in all things that by Remez includes the resurrection, the first fruits but because of the disobedience factor you cannot expect a resurrection with the Disciples of Yahushua who are by definition the first fruits just like the Messiah (Rev 14:4). Look and make sure you understand the condition "IF" you OBEY which means if you do not obey as many Christians refuse to obey the commandments in the Torah they cannot have a first resurrection but they will enter the kingdom upon the second resurrection but there are caveats and we will talk about positions in the kingdom later.

Rev 14:1 (AFNHSS) And I looked and saw a Lamb standing on Mount Tsiyon, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's Name<sup>1</sup> written upon their foreheads.

Having the Father's name YHWH as the seal means that these are the Disciples of the King Messiah and sadly most Christians cannot be the Disciples, while they break the Torah and do not live by the precepts of the laws of the King of the universe and call the laws a Jewish thing or worse still a strange thing. If you live in the United States and you say I don't believe in driving at 50 kilometres on the highway but at sixty instead then by definition you are breaking the law of the land if it was set at fifty kilometres an hour so you cannot say I keep the laws of the USA because technically you don't. This is akin to many Christians who say we believe in the Bible but they don't because they do not obey the laws therein.

Rev 14:12 (KJV) Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

These ones guard the commandments written in the Torah of Moses and it has been revealed to us to guard those zealously so these one hundred and forty four do exactly that. There will of course be others apart from the 144 thousands who also guard and keep the commandments they will enter the Kingdom of God as the disciples of Yahushua.

Isaiah 8:16 (KJV) Bind up the testimony, seal the law among My disciples.

The disciples of Yahushua guard and keep Torah and do not call it legalistic while a majority of Christians refuse to believe what is there and call it abrogated.

Those who think they are going to get in the kingdom in the first resurrection by living a disobedient life think again because you won't even make the first resurrection. Your resurrection will have to wait if you are dead and you will miss the one thousand years reign entirely, which is a reward for the faithful, since by definition you were not found faithful you are not condemned but you do not qualify for the reward either. Isaiah chapter eight verses sixteen confirms exactly this and tells us, which are the disciples of Yahushua and again it confirms what Revelation 14:1 does that they have the seal and testimony. In order to acquire the seal of God, the Torah must be obeyed there are no ifs and buts. The Torah is not just instructions as per its literal interpretation but the Torah is made up of testimonies of our forefathers the Patriarchs and the testimony of God and His dealings with Israel.

Isa 9:14-15 (KJV) Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

Look and read carefully God cuts of head and tail from within Israel not from outside.

Matthew 24:11 (NKJV) And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity (Torahlessness) shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

I am under no illusion that we have many people quite happy to live in sin and continue without Torah and its precepts and the love of many brethren has gone cold towards others even to the point of slandering each other.

2 Peter 2- 1 (NKJV) But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. (2) And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.

One destructive heresy that has entered many churches is that the sin of homosexuality is OK and that man should be allowed to lay with another man and the same with women, these are called civil partnerships in England. The term can apply to both male to male and female to female living together. The Roman Catholic Pope Benedict spoke against the practice of homosexuality recently and was berated by some Christian clergy of breaking the peace since they have fully accepted the deviant behaviour as a modern design of society.

There are many false prophets in Christianity who teach falsehood such as the law is done away while the Torah is clear "you will not teach falsehood". The destructive heresy that I described above can only come in when people deny the Torah as the foundation of our faith.

I can only warn you and you will reap the results for your own actions, those of you who stand against the Torah. You won't stand a chance consider this is a warning to mend your ways!!! It is clear to me that the Christians were given mercy and many have accepted the King Messiah but there are countless who through lack of Biblical education or ignorance refuse to accept the King's laws. Many of these represent the Ten tribes but they chose to kick the gourds and refuse to obey (Not true of All Christians though). So by implication you lose the place of your first resurrection but your resurrection will have to wait with the rest which is the second resurrection.

For me at least this is the most devastating point that although the Saints are to be raised first but most of the world along with those who live disobedient lives in and out of Christian churches will not be raised in the first resurrection. The first resurrection is for the disciples of Yahushua only and not for everyone as I demonstrated line by line and precept by precept above.

Rev 20:4 (NKJV) And I saw thrones – and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them – and the lives of those who had been beheaded because of the witness they bore to Jesus and because of THE WORD of God, and who did not worship the beast, nor his image, and did not receive his mark upon their foreheads or upon their hands. And they lived and reigned with Messiah for a thousand years

These people who were beheaded by the Islamic End-Times beast were believers who were commandment keeping, Torah loving. How do we know this? This text has all the nuisances of the Hebrew underneath it. The text said for “Witness they bore to Jesus/Yahushua.” That is because Yahushua quoted the Torah of Moses and said to the Pharisees it bears witness of Me!!! It is all about what you witness. You cannot be His witness by living disobediently. The Torah is a witness of our worship rendered to the God of Israel being the Messiah Yahushua (Jesus of Nazareth).

Joh 5:46 (NKJV) “For if you believed Moses, you would have believed Me, since he wrote about Me.

Do you see he is quoting Moses as a witness? This is because Moses would never testify for a lawless Greek Messiah but the Messiah was/is a Hebrew Jewish King and very law abiding and law enforcing. By extension the Messiah is also testifying for His lawful disciples who were Torah keepers hence why the reference “THE WORD” of God, which is the idiomatic expression for Torah keepers. Most people would not even see this and just jump past this text. Some Christians don’t read the book of Revelations since they are so frightened by the imagery.

Rev 20:6 (NKJV) Blessed and holy is the one having part in the first resurrection. The second death possesses no authority over these, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

To be a priest you have to be set-apart and commandment keeping (that is the only way you become set-apart) else you will not be a priest but a servant of the priests in the kingdom in other words a kingdom slave if you are alive at that time.

So logically the question is who is the disciple of Yahushua? Did you know that you can be saved but still not be the disciple of Yahushua? Ah, if only the church realised their error.

Yahushua Himself helped us answer this question.

Joh 8:31 (Scriptures) Yahushua therefore said to those Judeans who had believed him, “If you remain in my word, then you are truly my talmidim.”

Joh 8:31 (KJV) Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye are my disciples indeed;

Abrahamic-Faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures (NT)

John 8:31 (AFNHSS) Then said יְהוֹשֻׁעַ to those Yahudim (Jewish people) which believed on him, If you continue in my word,<sup>1</sup> then are you my disciples indeed;<sup>2</sup>

It becomes incumbent on us to know what does remaining in “My word” means because by Messiah’s own mouth if you remain in HIS WORD then are you truly His disciples indeed else there is a negative imperative that you are not.

Please note a person can be saved but not necessarily be His disciple and this will affect your resurrection status and your kingdom status illustrated above.

The reference to “My Word” is the Hebrew idiomatic expression used throughout scriptures to mean to keep and to obey Torah, the first five books of Moses.

On the day they face Yahushua He will tell them:

Matthew 7:23 (KJV) And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work Lawlessness (Torahlessness).

In Numbers Chapter 16 Korah’s rebellion was essentially against Torah, against the Priests and Levites and I have to say sadly the same heart and mind attitude does exist in many Christians today?

It does not really matter what teaching of the Torah one questions because if you question one you question the whole. You are guilty of sin. In other words, if you disagree with the Sabbath or you disagree about eating pork you actually question the Law Giver who is God.

The net result is to live in continuous wilful sin and rebellion. God said rebellion is the sin of witchcraft. No wonder many kids are gone astray and do not listen to their parents because you sow rebellion and thus will surely reap rebellion!

1 Samuel 15:23 (NKJV) For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. BECAUSE YOU HAVE REJECTED THE WORD OF THE LORD, HE ALSO HAS REJECTED YOU from being king."

You are meant to be Kings and Priest but by rejecting the words of God you will lose your kingship!!!!

If you question the Law Giver then its obvious that you have rejected His law even in ignorance. In other words, Moses and anybody coming with God’s doctrine and yes God does indeed have His

<sup>1</sup> The term ‘My word’ is the written Torah of Moses that Yahushua correctly taught; this is what is needed to become His Disciples. Without this you cannot be His Disciples. Many in Christendom feign discipleship but are not His disciples and do not walk in the Torah Truth that sets people FREE. Only these disciples are marked for the resurrection in the millennium. Many Christians will be sadly disappointed when they are not only put through tribulation but will not be raised in the first fruits resurrection. Why? They failed to take note that you do not live by only two commandments even if those two point you back to the entire 613 commandments. See footnote AF Torah edition Deuteronomy 28:1.

<sup>2</sup> He reaffirms the way to Discipleship is by obeying the Torah He gave to Moses. Whose report will you believe?

doctrine versus the world's doctrine. People of this type stand against Moses and predominantly against the God of Israel and His written words. This is why Yahushua said, "You reject Moses' words hence you have also rejected Me."

Numbers 16:27 (NKJV) So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

This applies to all teachers in and out of churches who teach anti-Torah doctrines.

Some will not get in at all Christian or not

The following story hit the headlines on December 23rd 2008 by the Pope of Rome.

Pope Benedict XVI

VATICAN CITY, Italy, Dec. 23 (UPI) -- Gay and lesbian activists say a speech by Pope Benedict XVI comparing homosexuality to global warming was irresponsible and encouraged homophobia.

Pope Benedict, addressing the Curia, the Vatican's central administration, Monday in an end-of-year address, said humanity needs to listen to the "language of creation" to understand God's intent in the roles of man and woman, adding that homosexual relations are a "destruction of God's work," The Times of London reported.

Then we have these remarks by the gay, lesbian and those Christians who support this lewd and sinful lifestyle.

By Martha Linden, PA
Tuesday, 23 December 2008

The Pontiff said humanity needed to listen to the "language of creation" to understand the intended roles of man and woman and that behaviour beyond traditional heterosexual relations was a "destruction of God's work".

He called on the Church to protect man from the "destruction of himself" saying that tropical rainforests deserved protection but man as a creature "does not deserve any less".

But the Rev Sharon Ferguson, chief executive of the Lesbian and Gay Christian Movement, described his remarks as "totally irresponsible and unacceptable in any shape or form."

The Rev Dr Giles Fraser, Vicar of Putney and president of Inclusive Church, the pro-gay Anglican movement, said: "I thought the Christmas angels said 'Fear not'.

"Instead, the Pope is spreading fear that gay people somehow threaten the planet. And that's just absurd.

Then on the 24th this story appeared.

The Guardian, Wednesday 24 December 2008

Benedict's main target appeared to be same-sex marriages. He claimed that lifelong wedlock between a man and a woman was like "the sacrament of creation".

Mike Egan, chair of the UK-based Lesbian and Gay Christian Movement, said the pope's position on homosexuality was a mistake. "There are much greater threats to marriage and family life. There are bishops and clergy who think the official line on homosexuality is not true and the more official pronouncements, the deeper the hole the church is digging. I would say to gay Catholics, the man is right on lots of other things and hang on in there."

Now tell me if a non-Christian was to read these stories what is he to think of your Christian faith? For a start he has no way to differentiate who is a Christian here and who isn't as they all including the Pope claim to be Christians meaning those who follow the Christ, the Jewish Messiah of Israel.

Although the papal comments were more towards defending what is marriage but the hypocrisy is they themselves don't allow their clergy to get married therefore abstaining what God has not abstained allows sin to continue in their churches such as child molestations. Then we have the leftist liberal Christians if they can be called Christians who defend the gay lifestyle and calling the Pope homophobic.

Technically the Pope's statement about marriage and the deviance of marriage is correct but they still make mistakes in their own institutions that they need to correct, while the leftist Christians are clearly allowing a sinful lifestyle to be considered right to what has already been stated in His Torah doctrine to be sinful.

For the believers of Yahushua in Nazarenes Judaism both these groups live in wilful disobedience and neither is better than the other when it comes to upholding the true commandments and the brit (Torah).

1Jn 3:9 (KJV) Everyone having been born of God does not sin, because His seed stays in him, and he is powerless to sin, because he has been born of God.

We can quite safely rule both these groups out as unbelievers and not born of the SEED of God. The SEED of God by its very action is the word of God, Luke 8:11.

Luke 8:11 (KJV) Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

The seed is the Torah of YHWH in allegorical terminology and since neither of these groups even care much less do Torah they can both be written off. The Torah is quite clear that a man laying with another man is committing an abomination. It does not matter what we call it whether civil partnership or otherwise.

Lev 18:22 (KJV) 'And do not lie with a male as with a woman, it is an abomination.

None of this type of deviant behaviour will allow these folks to see the Kingdom of God, let alone enter it.

Rev 22:15 (AFNHSS) For outside are dogs,<sup>4</sup> and those enchanting with drugs, and those who whore, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loves and practices falsehood.<sup>5</sup>

And as for the Pope and his large organisation they can also forget about inheriting what God has in store for His saints since they also practice a falsehood! They call Mary worship holy and they lift up an idol of a human being and exalt it to the throne of God and make her rather than the Son of God the intercessor and call Mary sinless which is raising and proclaiming a falsehood which is forbidden both in the Torah and in Rev 22:15.

They will not have the same place in the Kingdom

As I wrote earlier we have to apply the same litmus tests to commandment keeping, which is a way for rewards and blessings in this world and rewards for the coming kingdom rule. The salvation of our souls is by the blood of Messiah and it would be pointless for me to break the Torah, while I claim to walk in Kingdom rule but live disobediently. This is called unrighteous living.

The kingdom is here now but you are only walking in the kingdom if you walk the precepts of God meaning His Torah. All Christians that deny His Torah walk a very fine line.

Many Christians but not all are just satisfied to know we will get into the kingdom. My question to you is so you think you will get into the kingdom then what will happen after you get in and when will you get in? First resurrection or second? If you are disobedient you will not be in the first resurrection so there goes your rapture theory as well.

It's like I am going to London, ok so I get on my transport say a train and I get to London so then what? So what do I do when I arrive with a ticket of London in my hand and arrive at the gate of London on my train. Do I stand in the train station and look at other people's faces or know who I am meeting and what is my expectation for that day? This is the state of many Christians who hold a ticket in their hand but don't know what to do with it.

Slavery

Is it ok if you end up as a slave in the kingdom for the rest of your days? We need to think about this for a minute! This is what many of you have chosen whether by ignorance or deliberate error and no you cannot change your status by claiming ignorance. When you go to buy a car or TV you make the effort to check out what sort of car or TV you are wishing to buy, the type of insurances you want to take and this is stuff in this world that one could count of no eternal importance but many of you make sure on these procedures like your life depends on it. When we talk about eternity, which is the most important endeavour we will all have to take how many of us spend the time planning our eternity.

At this point some of you may exclaim I did it by ignorance and not deliberately so somehow it justifies the end?

<sup>4</sup> Anyone who is not in Israel such as unsaved gentiles are outside. Note no Yah'sar'elite is outside including Judah is in, dogs meaning gentiles.

<sup>5</sup> Anyone who makes or practices a falsehood such as in Exodus 23:23. Many religious leaders of the world will fall into this trap because they have made up a falsehood and then deceived the common people who ended up following it. The greater part of the judgment will fall on these types of leaders.

Can the Muslim people or the Hindu people also claim the same ignorance as you and receive the kingdom and its rewards?

If they cannot when they seem to have a more plausible excuse of not having the Scriptures that you are so blessed to have and to read and learn then why are you playing the ignorance card?

The answer is NO ENTRY my friend and you have been warned. To be wrong in eternity is self created suicide.

You all have Bibles even if they sit and eat dust on your shelves while most of you are happy to read your daily tabloids because you put more value in that than the everlasting scriptures. Is it that you read them but simply failed to understand truth and go to more knowledgeable teachers in your circles or you could have gone to the orthodox Jewish Rabbis who would be willing to show you Torah but you shunned them as unsaved because of your ignorant assemblies and denominational doctrines while all along you were the one who needed help and not them. Some of you have problems with having Rabbi's yet having a teacher/mentor is a Biblical requirement (Matthew 28:20). There will be no commission without a Rabbi/teacher.

I know some of you will ridicule this article and by doing that you set your judgment already (what you sow that you shall reap Gal 6:7) so that there now remains no reason for you not to know the truth and obey it. An eye for an eye and a tooth for tooth is what Rabbi Paulos is really specifying it is the law of effects in the Bible Exodus 21:24 the inverse statement. He did not come with Gal 6:7 out of nowhere.

If you are not sure of a teaching then you should get hold of a good Rabbi/teacher who is learned in keeping Torah to learn the things that you need to know for your eternity. Even if you decide to go to an orthodox Rabbi he should be able to help you in how to keep Torah and there is no harm and no prejudice as many Christians do shamefully against Judah.

The situation could change right now at an instance and that is by you alone if you are not doing so already to repent and start living and practicing Torah. Learn what you do not know by good teachers who also practice and love and guard Torah. Any teacher who teaches you not to obey Torah that person is not fit to be a teacher no matter how big a TV personality he is.

Now what about those who are sincere and willing to follow Torah but don't know how to?

There is good news for you. God will look at you with favour. If you are willing and have not yet learnt how to do the commandments then go and learn them. The first thing for you then is to learn is the set-apart days like the Sabbaths, New Moons, feasts, and annual Sabbaths.

Pray for righteous teachers to be sent to you so that you may learn the commandments. There is no greater blessing in this life than this that you may have a Torah observant Messiah loving teacher near you who understands fundamental truths in Scripture and does not shun them away like many unlearned Christians who sadly simply regurgitate one line from the scriptures "Jesus died on the cross" and do not understand the Torah based lifestyle and way of righteous living. Some of them do not know He is not even called Jesus but Yahushua/Yeshua, they may not yet even understand why He died and who He died for.

Yahushua certainly did not die for the world this is churchy based doctrine and the Bible does not state this so.

He died for Israel who are the covenant people of God split into the two houses one North and One South, both will be united become Akhad with God at the return of Yahushua and live in harmony and peace. Judah will not vex Ephraim and Ephraim will learn to love God and obey the Torah and not envy Judah (Isa 11:13).

Any other non-Israelite person who enters the covenants that God has set-apart for Israel that person will become party to by adhering to the requirements of the covenants of Israel and will BE GRAFTED IN (Romans 11:17).

Now coming back to the issue of slavery in the kingdom, some of you would have assigned yourself to this simply by disobedient living. Wife's who do not submit to their husband's I have news for you, you have assigned yourself to this lifestyle and you will have a relegated status. This is not because God does not love you or dislikes you for being women but because you have failed to allow your husband the headship that he was given by God but you usurped his authority and there is a penalty and a price to pay for this both here and in the future age to come. For one any household where the woman rules the house and the husband is a mouse that household cannot flourish, it will lack peace and the children will be disobedient to parents. This pretty much sums up the West as a culture as it is riddled with women power, women emancipation ideas and the feminist women movement has driven the male psyche through the wall. Men are not allowed to be good husbands any longer. They end up drinking, on drugs and going to the wall so to speak.

Eph 5:22 (KJV) Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Master.

To submit to the master means to submit to God. When we go before God we entreat him with our requests we do not order Him around. Do you entreat your husband or order him to do something? Do you do the jiggle with "I will do this" telling your husband or do you say to your husband "may I do this and do you approve"? The person in Scriptures who did the "I will" routine was either YHWH or Satan and if you have done this routine where you decide what your husband should listen to then beware because your place is relegated in the kingdom and you have become a little god to your husband which is equal to Satan and have become idolatrous. If you are respectful to your husband and beseech him with love with "May I" oppose to "I will" then you are blessed to be placed among those women in the camp like Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah. Remember Sarah did not say to Abraham "I will", she respected and obeyed her husband and entreated him and called him my master (1 Peter 3:6), while many in the West the first chance they get if they don't like something done by the husband they either kick the husband out of the house or run away themselves and file for the divorce on demand while scripture says we should not take our cases to the gentile law courts.

Psa 68:6 (NKJV) God makes a home for the lonely; He brings out into prosperity Those who are bound with chains; Only the rebellious shall dwell in a dry land.

The husband who has to listen to his wife's taunts but obeys Torah will be freed from the chains but the wife will spend the rest of her days in a dry land. This is the pictures of Israel who were in bondage but were later released into a fertile land, while you the wife who are in a fertile land will be put into chains because you are stubborn and refuse to walk the straight and narrow path of God by subjugating His leader so God uses the analogy of "dry land" in the reverse. No water or "dry land" has the meaning that the disobedient wife will not be fed with spiritual water and can certainly look forward to spending her time in servitude. She will bear no children and her rewards will be non-existent. Because she challenged God's authority and broken headship the cost of this she will have to bear in the millennium thousand year reign rest assured unless she repents and mends her ways now. Please make the right choice for yourself, stubbornness will not help you but repentance and restitution with your husband will help you.

Proverbs 14:19 (NKJV) The evil will bow before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

There is servitude for those who also refused to obey Torah and lived lawlessly. They can expect no rewards. You can call yourself Christian or whatever, non keeping of God's holy laws, which are mentioned time and time again in the New Testament (Renewed Covenant) you walk a very dangerous ground! All the Christians who hated God's Torah and ridiculed His people both Jewish and others who guarded Torah will have people who will bow before them literally.

Revelation 3:9 (NKJV) "Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

The assembly of those who say they have replaced Israel (the replacement theology crowd) you have harsh realities coming your way when you will face the Master because you kicked the goads the most and murdered the believers of Messiah who were Torah keepers with your tongues and lashon hara (evil speech). You had plenty of laughs on others but you won't be laughing when your day is over but you will be weeping instead. The time is now to repent and return and go and apologise to those you hated and laughed against! If you do not make restitution you have no place in the kingdom.

They will not have the same position of authority

Those of the Christians who called others who were keeping Torah legalistic, using God's personal name and His commandments became an offence to them, they thought they knew better than their maker. These will be sorry they ever used these kind of words to describe God's laws.

Mat 12:36 (NKJV) And I say to you that for every idle word men speak, they shall give an account of it in the day of judgment.

Every one of those words you spoke will be used against you in judgment. No matter what the anti-Torah and anti-Hebrew/Aramaic scholars say about the text the matter is closed.

Isa 2:2 (NKJV) And it shall be in the latter days that the mountain of the House of the Lord is established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills. And all nations shall flow to it.

Have you ever asked the question why do all nations flow to the Mountain of YHWH? To most of you this has been taught that these are nations of people who are unbelievers. This is not the whole truth of what this scripture is teaching.

Isa 2:3 (NKJV) And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

These are not just gentiles as you were taught by your pastors but these will be the returning tribes of Israel both of Yahudah and Ephraim stock, which were scattered in the nations, who have suddenly got it fixed in their heads that they belong to Israel but they have lived in the nations so long that they had forgotten the ways (Halacha) of God and have now decided to return (physical repentance and return to the ancient paths) to their ancestors land and learn the forgotten ways. This also means there is NO Rapture (sorry there goes your false hope) but a resurrection in the millennium for the faithful disciples and righteous people of the Tanach (Hebrew Bible). King David will be raised and set as King over us. Many of you will not be allowed to enter the 3rd Temple because you believed in the error that physical circumcision is only for the Yahudim and not for you so you shall be banned.

Eze 44:9 (AFNHSS) Thus says Master אֲנֹכִי; No foreigner,<sup>6</sup> uncircumcised in heart,<sup>7</sup> and uncircumcised in flesh,<sup>8</sup> shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigner that is among the children of Yah'sar'el (Israel).

Both Acts are required – circumcision of the heart follows circumcision of the flesh for males only. There is no getting around this.

Most translations of the Bible are at fault for translating this particular verse as if only one act is sufficient either the act of the circumcision of the heart or circumcision of the flesh. Let me show you the flaw in this. It was never acceptable to come before God by just having circumcision of the flesh as you had to have been what many people are taught to regurgitate like parrots “born again” without understanding this buzzword, which really means “keeping the commandments of Torah”, meaning we must be set-apart and this only ever happened if we had been planted with the SEED (by the Ruach) from heaven to allow this SEED (the word) to grow into a tree, in the likeness of the Sefirotic tree of Ein Sof.

Please see my article on what doe born again really mean.

So you had to be set-apart first before you could physically circumcise unless you were born a child into the faith. The act of circumcision of the heart was one that God did and was always first in the sequence of events, we find this in Abraham, the act of circumcision in his life was number two after He was called Righteous.

Gen 15:6 (NKJV) And he believed in God, and He reckoned it to him for righteousness.

Your positions of authority will be relegated to a low status. Today some of you may spend an immense time watching the Christian Television but hardly any teacher on there ever talk favourably about the Law (Torah) of God, while most are happy to put it down as outdated and abrogated and most of you feel content that just because some Christian Pastor has endorsed it therefore somehow God has now got to become subservient to that Pastor's error. This is the error that has been accepted wholesale by most of you yet ALL of you will come to know God's law is valid and then you will cry over your mistakes but there will be no turning back at that point in time

<sup>6</sup> The Hebrew is an application to one who was not born in Yah'sar'el (Israel) but is of foreign extraction and becomes a proselyte to the Biblical faith.

<sup>7</sup> Its only YHWH that can circumcise our heart and this means born again or born of above, this covenant is tied to the renewed covenant mentioned first in Deut 29:1.

<sup>8</sup> Brit milah, physical circumcision is not an option but mandatory as it is one of the seals of the faith and the covenant given to father Abraham was everlasting not temporal. Those people who are not circumcised including Christians will not be allowed in the Temple and there will be no magical circumcisions either.

because you had only yourselves to blame for your choices. You will feel bitter and angry over listening to these erroneous pastors who thought they were God's mouthpiece but actually they were only helping Satan being deceived by him and deceiving others in the process by their ignorance by abrogating the law of God.

Rev 12:9 (KJV) And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

The devil is good at deceiving people and they only helped. It's too bad they refused to listen.

I am not the judge or jury but my heartfelt prayer is that many of you will come to know and practice the law of God in your lives and make it a lifestyle choice that your testimony will bear witness one day that you are the true children of God.
